

OMS can state that its experience with the alcohol problem mirrors Mr. Elsmo's in many ways. We have developed many referral resources for the troubled employee which includes the alcoholic. In addition, again mirroring Mr. Elsmo's experience, we have a developing cadre of recovered alcoholic employees who are now offering their support in counseling services for other such troubled employees.